CHAPTER - 6

THE SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

SUMMARY

This story is about Tina's birthday and she is very much excited about it; but on the other hand she is also upset as seems no one remembers her birthday in the house.

She remembers that last year they had thrown a party for her and everybody gave her a gift.

That evening after dinner everybody went to bed early. She also went to her room and prayed that "tomorrow is my birthday and no one remembers." Please God do something.

But as soon as the clock struck twelve she could see the happy faces of her family and they all sang a birthday song for her.

She sat up on her bed and saw that her uncle Ken and aunt Beth have also come.

Her daddy held her in her arms and loved her. Granny had made a beautiful pink fairy dress for her and mummy had arranged a party for her friends.

Then her daddy picked her up in his arms and carried her outside in the porch where there was a beautiful cycle for her as a gift which she wanted.

They cut a cake at midnight and then her grandfather called her from London and told her that he had send a beautiful doll for her.

Tina was feeling sleepy and she thanked God for such a wonderful family.
